

Winchester School of Chinese Culture

Weekly Newsletter

November 14, 2004

wsc.info@gmail.com

To All Teachers and Parents

This is a kind remind that we got a Muraco teacher's report some furniture and white board in her room were left something sticky which is very inconvenient for her to use. We sincerely apologize to the teacher and please remind your children/students that No food and drink allowed in any classrooms.

Class Updates 课堂新动向

It has been half way through the first semester. Next week, there will be a midterm exam. The format will up to the teacher according to each class's situation. Through test we evaluate our progress and encourage children to study better and be proud what they have learned.

If you have any suggestions /comments to current classes, please feel free to speak to teachers or principal. Your feedback will be very important to help WSCC run better. Any comments are highly appreciated.

Chinese Language Journal 订阅语文报

Our teacher recommends a Chinese Language Journal (语文报) that will help your children to learn Chinese at home. Samples are available on our information desk. Please have a look and sign up and we will order as a group with discount price.

For Your Information 家长推荐

Kumon is an after-school math and reading program that employs a unique learning method designed to help each child develop the skills needed to perform to his or her full potential. The Kumon Method facilitates self-acquisition of the skills and study habits needed to improve academic performance.

For more information and center location near you please visit www.kumon.com. For Kumon Center in Reading please contact Dr. Prakash Badola at 978-250-1855 (email reading_ma@ikumon.com)

Help wanted 集思广益

WSCC is planning a party for Chinese New Year at end of our first semester Jan. 30, 2005. There will be performance from each class and culture related activities. This event will be open to public. Your suggestions and participation will be highly appreciated. wsc.info@gmail.com

Fund Raising for WSCC 集资活动

On December 5th, BeautiLife Co. will come to WSCC to display and demonstrate their wonderful holiday related products (many are specially for Chinese New Year) to save you time for holiday shopping as well as raise fund to WSCC. Please take a flyer at information desk. This event is open to public. If you can help distribute flyers to more people, please feel free to take more.