

Winchester School of Chinese Culture

Weekly Newsletter

December 12, 2004

wscs.info@gmail.com

One More Chance! Fund Raising for WSCC 本週 集资活动

This Sunday Dec. 12th, BeautiLife Co. will come again to WSCC to display and sell their wonderful holiday related products, especially for Chinese New Year celebration. This event is open to public. Please feel free to bring your friends with you. Order forms are available on information desk.

Class Updates 课堂新动向

Teacher Hu for Bilingual class is not available for next two weeks. We invite Ms Weiwei Yu to be a substitute teacher.

Registration for Spring 2005 will start on Dec. 19th. The current WSCC students will have the privileges to register first before we open to public. Please be prepared and help us spread the news to public.

Do not Miss

the Precious Chinese Art Exhibit

The Chinese Masters (中国近代名家书画真迹展) and The Uncompromising Courage Exhibit (‘坚韧不屈的精神’艺术展)

Ritz-Carlton Hotel, Boston Common,
Dec. 9 - 12. (this Sunday!)

For more details please open the links below, to share with your friends and families.

1. Link in English:

<http://epochtimes.myftp.org/ArtExhibition/Invitation.jpg>

2. Link in Chinese:

<http://epochtimes.myftp.org/ArtExhibition>

Boston Globe reporter visiting WSCC this week

On Dec 12, Ms Cindy Cantrell, the reporter for Boston Globe's NorthWest section will come to WSCC to visit and interview with some parents, students, teachers and staff members in order to write an article to newspaper. We welcome her visit and introducing WSCC to public. She will also bring a photographer for pictures. If any of you have concerns or not willing to be interviewed or pictured, please kindly let us know, we respect your personal feelings.

Our Appreciation goes to FamilyOne Mortgage, LLC

A few weeks ago, managers of FamilyOne Mortgage, came to WSCC and provided an educational seminar about how to manage mortgage. It was very informative to those who joined the seminar. Now Family One Mortgage generously donated $200 to WSCC to support our programs. We would like to show our sincere appreciation to Family One Mortgage. We wish them a good fortune in return to their generosity to the community.

FamilyOne Mortgage can be contacted at 617-243-3900 for Michael Song or Maria Tang if you happen to have mortgage questions.